Case No. 7:99-CV-025-X

ORDER

On this day, this Court signed a separate Order entitled "Memorandum Opinion (Containing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law) and Contempt and Damage Order." The Court is concerned and believes fairness dictates that the thousands of APA pilots affected by this matter have immediate and easy practical access to the actual ruling of the Court affecting them and their Union. The Court hereby ORDERS Defendants Allied Pilots Association, Richard LaVoy, and Brian Mayhew to post the complete text of the Order entitled "Memorandum Opinion (Containing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law) and Contempt and Damage Order" on Defendant Allied Pilots Association's Internet website. This posting is ORDERED accomplished no later than by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 24, 1999, and the Order entitled "Memorandum Opinion (Containing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law) and Contempt and Damage Order" must remain posted on Defendant Allied Pilots Association's Internet website until further Order of this Court. Defendant Allied Pilots Association is further ORDERED, without delay, to notify its membership by the most expeditious means possible the presence and location on the Allied Pilots Association's Internet website of the Court's "Memorandum Opinion (Containing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law) and Contempt and Damage Order."

SO ORDERED this 23rd day of June, 1999.
